A high quality fully fitted office suite in the heart of Manchester city centre.

Description

Tellers Place has undergone a full refurbishment and provides three stunning self-contained office suites accessed via an impressive full height atrium.

The building benefits from secure fob access and a passenger lift serving all floors. There are showers and bike storage facilities to the basement level.

The available suite is situated on the third floor with excellent natural light and views over King Street.

Specification

The third floor office suite has been fully fitted to the following specification: -

- 8-person meeting room with feature lighting
- Self-contained toilets including disabled W/C's
- Private fitted kitchen
- Air-conditioning heating and cooling
- Openable sash windows and velux windows
- 2 x modular Zoom Pods
- LED lighting throughout
- Mixture of carpet and LVT flooring
- Vaulted ceiling with exposed services
- Excellent levels of natural light

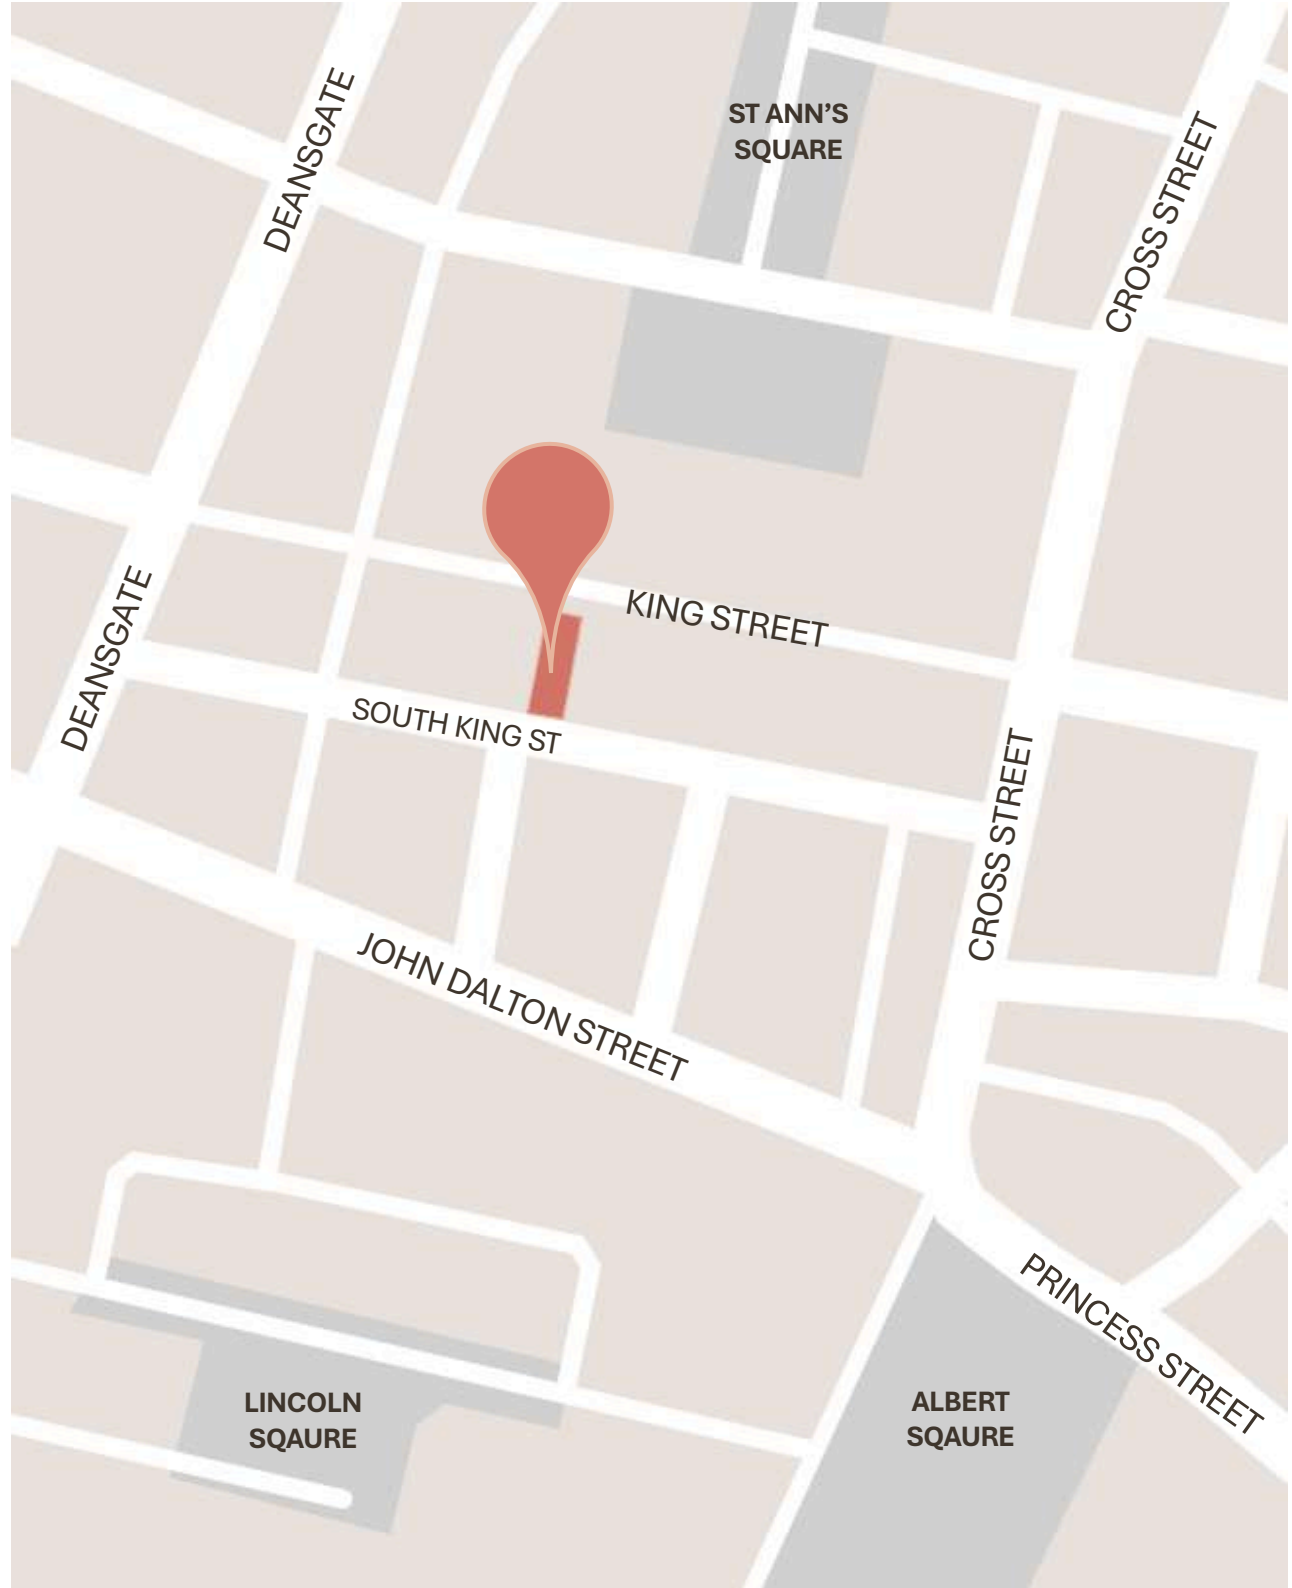

Location

The building sits in an established and thriving area of the city centre which boasts some of the cities finest restaurants, cafes and shops.

King Street is a centrally located throughfare which connects the central business district with Spinningfields and has long been a popular choice for businesses.

The office suites are accessed via the quieter South King Street elevation of the building, opposite Dalton Place and Island office buildings.

The property benefits from excellent connectivity and is within a short walk of several major transport interchanges.
